

HR

Title III

(392) The House bill and Senate amendment contain similar provisions creating a National Center for Special Education Research at the Institute for Education Science. However, the House bill contains this language in Section 663.

HR

(393) The Senate amendment, but not the House bill, contains a separate provision on the mission of the NCSER. The House bill and Senate amendment have differing language on the grant application process.

HR

(394) The House bill lists similar authorized activities as the Senate amendment, which contains those activities under the "duties" section.

HR

(395) The Senate amendment, but not the House bill, contains a "standards" section.

HR

(396) The Senate amendment contains more detailed plan provisions than the House bill, and contains an implementation provision while the House does not.

HR

Title IV

(397) The Senate amendment creates a commission on universal design and requires reports to be submitted to Congress on universal design and accessibility of instructional materials. The House bill does not include this provision.

SR

Title V

(399) The Senate amendment, but not the House bill, includes an amendment to the Children's Health Act to include the Secretary of Education as a required partner in the longitudinal study and requires that the study be in compliance with FERPA requirements.

HR

(398) The Senate amendment, but not the House bill, includes this required study on medication.
